For our

4th ANNUAL ISRAEL STUDY TRIP: July 6-13, 2007

at the Jerusalem Campus of

HEBREW UNION COLLEGE-JEWISH INSTITUTE OF RELIGION

“HINENI - Personal Responsibility in Jewish Tradition and Israeli Society”

Through text study (both in the classroom and in the field), dialogue, personal meetings and field trips we will examine the issue of personal and communal responsibility, from both an historical and modern perspective:

- What are our responsibilities to "others?"
- What tools can we use to fulfill our responsibilities?
- How have individuals in Israeli society responded to this challenge?
- Where do we as Canadian Reform Jews find our place in addressing this challenge?

Led by: Joan Garson, President, ARZA Canada & Rabbi Sharon L. Sobel

Study with HUC-JIR professors and scholars (in English), including: Dr. Amira Meir, Dr. David Mendlesohn, Rabbi Moshe Silbershein and many others!

- Classes will be held both in the classroom and “in the field”
- See Jerusalem as a “Living Laboratory” – afternoon field trips around the city
- Meet with leaders of the Israel Reform Movement
- Engage with politicians and activists and dialogue on the most current issues
- Private session at the Israeli Supreme Court
  - Experience the beauty of celebrating Shabbat in Jerusalem
- Pre-trip lecture series to help prepare for our program in Israel
- Optional Pre-Course Visits to: Nitzana/Lov Eliav (a peace village on the Egyptian border: Thurs. July 5th;) The new Palmach Museum in Tel Aviv (Friday morning, July 6th)– additional bus fee will apply for both trips.

TUITION: $950.00.00 US Dollars (tax receipt for full amount)

Basic study trip includes tuition, study materials, bus fees, class trips, tour guides, museum entrance fees for programmed visits, 6 lunches and 4 dinners
